

The photo shows some of the 29 young people standing for election in December 2007, and several elected youth councillors and support workers.

29 is the highest number of candidates so far in the history of Harlow Youth Council.

During Hustings Day, the young people received information and training on being a Harlow Youth Councillor and had their official photographs taken.

The candidates wrote their manifesto statements and committed to them by reading them aloud to the rest of the attendees.

Voting takes place during week commencing Monday 3rd December and the results will be announced at a public meeting on Tuesday 11th December 2008.
