

The photo shows Harlow Youth Councillors Mina and Leroy collecting an award for the Youth Initiative of the Year at the Regional Monitor's Excellence Awards in London.

The Regional Monitor is a national magazine and the awards showcase and celebrate local innovation and best practice across the country.

The winning Youth Café project has been a priority of Harlow Youth Council since its members spoke with young people who said that they wanted a place to meet up that was suitable for under 18's.