

Open

Monday 27th June – Saturday 30th July 2005
Gibberd Gallery

The Gibberd Gallery summer Open is an exhibition of paintings, drawings, prints, ceramics and sculpture by local artists. On display are works by 36 artists living, working or studying in Harlow.

This summer Open is a first for the Gibberd Gallery and sets a precedent for future annual Open's. The judges, Lady Gibberd, Cllr Jack Jesse, Angela Tribe (local resident), and Colin Edge (Harlow Arts Council), whittled down almost two hundred submissions to the 44 that will be on display throughout July.

In the spirit of an 'Open' competition, submissions were received from both professional artists and people who paint for enjoyment. The exhibition reflects this ethos and offers something for everyone, ranging from small pictorial work to large-scale abstracts.
