

HARLOW DISTRICT COUNCIL
INTERIM REVIEW OF POLLING DISTRICTS AND POLLING PLACES 2015

Notice is hereby given that Harlow District Council is to carry out an interim review of polling places within the following wards:

- Church Langley
- Little Parndon & Hare Street
- Mark Hall

The purpose of the review is to seek to ensure that:

- all electors in Harlow have such reasonable facilities for voting as are practicable in the circumstances; and
- so far as reasonable and practicable, the polling places in Harlow are accessible to all electors, including those who are disabled.

The (Acting) Returning Officer for Harlow has reviewed the polling districts and polling places and intends to recommend the following to the polling places:

- Henry Moore School will remain as the designated polling place for Church Langley East (BA)
- Subject to a satisfactory disability access audit, designate Pemberley Academy as the polling place for Little Parndon & Hare Street East (EA)
- Continue with the temporary arrangement in place and designate Harlow Museum as the polling place for Mark Hall North (FA)

Any elector in Harlow may make representations in relation to the size and boundaries of the above polling districts and the location and suitability of polling places within them. Details of the current polling districts and places is available from the Council's website at: www.harlow.gov.uk/elections-polling

In addition, the Council would welcome comments or representations from:

- the MP for Harlow, district councillors and county councillors representing electors within Harlow
- election agents, local political parties and past or potential candidates
- any person or organisation with expertise in access for persons with any type of disability
- organisations or individuals who are responsible for buildings used as a polling place or could be used for this purpose.

The consultation period will commence on 16 October 2015 and all representations must be received by 13 November 2015.

Representations should be made in writing to:

Malcolm Morley

(Acting) Returning Officer

Harlow District Council, Latton Bush Centre, Southern Way, Harlow, Essex CM18 7BL

On completion of the review, the details of the representations received will be made available for inspection on the Council's website. Final proposals will be considered by the Council's Cabinet in December 2015, and if approved, will come into effect for all future elections.

Malcolm Morley
(Acting) Returning Officer
